Abstract

In this talk, I will first show you a simple way to construct entire solutions by finite planar fronts. These entire solutions are generalized traveling fronts, that is, transition fronts. Then, we show their uniqueness and stability. Finally, we prove that transition fronts with level sets having finite facets are determined by finite planar fronts.