

Abstract

We prove existence and uniqueness results for the obstacle problem related to a degenerate nonlinear diffusion equation perhaps perturbed by multiplicative noise. The approach is based on an entropy formulation for (stochastic) variational inequalities. We compare the entropy framework with the usual variational formulation for porous medium equations. This talk is based on a joint work with Dr. Ruoyang Liu (刘若杨).