

Abstract

The deep hole problem of some algebraic codes, such as generalized Reed-Solomon codes, some Reed-Muller codes (known as bent functions), has been studied extensively. In this talk, we will talk about the deep hole problem of elliptic curve codes. This work is joint with Prof. Daqing Wan (UCI).