

Abstract

We will discuss the problem of classifying of simple modules for universal affine vertex algebras, in particular the role of twisting functors and their properties.