

Abstract

This talk focuses on the study of local derivations on the Block-type Lie algebras B , which admit nontrivial outer derivations. We prove that every local derivation on B is in fact a derivation.