Abstract

In this talk we will discuss the geometry and topology of a special type of compact Hermitian manifolds, whose Bismut connection has parallel torsion. The talk is based on a recent joint work with Prof. Quanting Zhao from Central China Normal University. We will give a classification result for such manifolds in complex dimension three.