Abstract

In this talk, we will start with an introduction to the spinorial version of the Weierstrass representation for surfaces in R^3. For constant mean curvature surfaces this leads to a non-linear eigenvalue equation for the Dirac operator, and we will share our recent progress on the existence theory for this problem.