Abstract

The Galilean conformal algebra is an infinite-dimensional extension of the finite-dimensional Galilean conformal algebra in (d+1) dimensional space-time. We use simple modules over the finite-dimensional solvable Lie algebras to construct many simple restricted modules.