

Abstract

In the classification of weak Fano varieties, Kawamata-Miyaoka type inequalities which concern the relations between the first and the second Chern classes play an important role. In this talk, I will show the recent progress on these inequalities and some of their applications. Part of these series works are jointed with Masataka Iwai, Chen Jiang, and Jie Liu.