Abstrat

It is our purpose to study complete self-shrinkers of mean curvature flow in Euclidean spaces. Self-shrinkers of mean curvature flow describe all possible blow up at a given singularity of the mean curvature flow. By making use of the generalized maximum principle for L-operator, we study 2-dimensional complete self-shrinkers with constant squared norm of the second fundamental form.