Abstract

In this talk, we study a class of infinite-dimensional Lie algebras arising from group graded algebras. We associate vertex algebras and their coordinated modules to representations of these Lie algebras. An equivalence between the category of restricted modules for the Lie algebras and the category of coordinated modules for the vertex algebras is established.