

Abstract

I will talk about a recent joint work with Timothée Bénard on quantitative equidistribution of Zariski dense random walks on finite-volume quotients of simple Lie groups. I will introduce the background of this work and then highlight how Brascamp-Lieb inequalities and projection theory become involved in this problem.